THE HOLFS S. S. TANTALUS

We learn that the s. a. Tantalus [Capt. Jones), on her way from Amoy to Hongkong, is ashere at or near the Ninepios. As wyst very little is known as to the cause of the socident, sithough the Chousang and Names report having had to anchor out" side in consequence of the thick forgy weather. The Tentalus had over a thousand Chinese passengers on board, and these have been landed, we hear, at Foo-towmoon, about two or three miles from where the Tentalus lies. They were put ashers in the ship's boats and fishing junks. . The Dock Co's tug Pilot Fish was despatchto the airended vessel so soon as the news of the accident was received; and, later, the steamer Soochow was sent out to render assistance. Captain Jones, of the Tantalus, and formerly in command of the Telemachus, has, we believe, never mot with an accident before, and he is regarded as one of the most experienced and most careful navigators of the Blue-funnel
